

Presented by:
John Schoenknecht
Author and Educator

The Great Waukesha Water War of 1893

In 1892 - 1893, the city of Waukesha was embroiled in a conflict with agents from the Chicago Columbian Exposition over the use of its spring water. This presentation will explain the many attempts of the Chicago folks to pipe Waukesha water to the World's Fair and how Waukesha fought back.

Co-sponsored by

ELMBROOK
HISTORICAL SOCIETY

1075 Pilgrim Parkway, Brookfield, WI
www.elmbrookhistoricalsociety.org

and the Brookfield Public Library

MONDAY
MAY 21, 2018
7:00 PM

Community Room
Brookfield Public Library
1900 North Calhoun Rd.
Brookfield, WI 53005

Free and open to the public

